Processor – a cooperation partner (a natural or legal person) which processes Personal Data on behalf of and in the interests of the Controller.

Recipient – Processor or Third Party.

Regulation – Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation).

Third Party – a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the Data Subject, Controller, Processor and persons who, under the direct authority of the Controller or Processor, are authorised to process Personal Data.

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1. The purpose of the Privacy Policy is to protect the fundamental rights and freedoms of natural persons in relation to the processing of Personal Data by the Bank in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia and the EU in the field of personal data protection, as well as to disclose information about the processing of Personal Data to the Data Subject in accordance with the requirements of the Regulation.
- 1.2. The Policy shall lay down the general procedures for the processing of Personal Data, defining the main purposes of Personal Data processing and the conditions for determining the legal basis, the applicable basic principles of Personal Data protection when processing Personal Data, as well as the storage period of Personal Data and the cases when Personal Data are transferred to Recipients and to third countries, and the procedures by which the Data Subject may exercise their rights.
- 1.3. The Policy has been developed taking into account the requirements of the Regulation, which are aimed at ensuring the security of Personal Data. The Bank shall process the Personal Data of a natural person, respecting the interests of the person to protect their privacy.
- 1.4. Within the framework of applicable laws and regulations, the Bank shall ensure the confidentiality of Personal Data and has implemented appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect Personal Data against unauthorized access, unlawful processing, disclosure, accidental loss, alteration or destruction.
- 1.5. In some cases, when processing Personal Data, the Bank may have the status of the Processor in relation to another Controller, for example, when offering insurance services to Clients within the framework of insurance; in these cases, the Policy shall not apply to the processing of the relevant Personal Data.
- 1.6. When posting in the Bank's social network profiles (for example, various news about the Bank's professional activities, information on corporate internal, external events, achievements of the Bank's officials or employees, interviews, job advertisements etc.), publications may be accompanied by comments from individuals or marked by a person's reaction to a particular message. In these cases, the Policy shall not apply to the processing of the relevant Personal Data.
- 1.7. The terms used herein shall correspond to the terms used in the Regulation.
- 1.8. This Policy shall be binding to all employees and officials of the Bank.
- 1.9. The Bank's cookie policy is available on the Bank's website: www.bluorbank.lv.

2. GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

- 2.1. In order to ensure that the processing of Personal Data is secure and compliant with the requirements of the Regulation and other regulatory enactments, the Bank as the Controller shall observe the following principles relating to processing of Personal Data:
 - 2.1.1. Personal Data shall be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to the Data Subject ('lawfulness, fairness and transparency'). In implementing this principle, the Bank has developed and is regularly updating this Policy, by which it informs the Data Subject of the processing of his/her Personal Data, thus ensuring that Personal Data are not used for any other purposes than those for which they have been collected. The Bank shall respect the rights of the Data Subject by enabling him/her to control and monitor the processing of his/her data (see Section 11 herein);
 - 2.1.2. Personal Data shall be processed for clear purposes and solely according to them ('purpose limitation'). The Bank shall not collect and store Personal Data for unclear future purposes, the need for which has not been assessed and the commencement of implementation of which has not been approved by laws and regulations or the internal regulatory documents of the Bank;
 - 2.1.3. Personal Data shall be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed ('data minimisation'). In implementing this principle, the Bank shall not request and process more information from the Data Subject than is necessary for attaining the relevant purpose;
 - 2.1.4. Personal Data shall be accurate ('accuracy'). The Bank shall ensure that it processes only correct and accurate data. If the Bank has any doubts about the relevance or correctness of the information provided by the Data Subject, the Bank shall contact the Data Subject to clarify the information being processed. Every Data Subject shall have a duty to notify the Bank if the information provided by the Data Subject to the Bank (for example, person's surname, telephone number, residence address, etc.) has changed;
 - 2.1.5. Personal Data shall be retained for no longer than is necessary ('storage limitation'). The Bank shall process Personal Data for no longer than is necessary for achieving a specific purpose. An exception shall be, when upon the termination of a specific purpose another legitimate purpose occurs (see Section 12 herein);

- 2.1.6. Personal Data shall be processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the Personal Data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, by applying appropriate technical or organisational measures ('integrity and confidentiality'). The Bank shall protect Client data using modern technologies, taking into account the existing privacy risks (for example, various security measures shall be used – data encryption when transmitting data; firewalls; hacker protection, etc.); likewise, the information technology system shall be constantly improved by the Bank with the aim to ensure the security of Personal Data. The Bank shall ensure that access to Personal Data is granted only to the employees requiring such an access in order to fulfil their job duties. The Bank has developed a range of regulatory documents governing the procedures for granting the right of access to information, pursuant to which processing of Personal Data, and other confidential or sensitive information is carried out. For the purposes of minimising the risk of breach of Personal Data, the Bank shall monitor the activities relating to the processing of Personal Data, register every incident affecting data security and take measures to prevent further threats to data.
- 2.2. The Bank shall be liable for compliance with the principles referred to in sub-paragraphs of paragraph 2.1 herein and ensure their observance as follows:
- 2.2.1. Implementing and regularly updating this Policy and ensuring the compliance of Bank's operation thereto;
- 2.2.2. Introducing appropriate technical and organisational means and measures (including the development of internal regulatory documents, the performance of internal data processing audits);
- 2.2.3. Carrying out regular training of current and new Bank employees, including on the processing and protection of Personal Data, as well as the observance of confidentiality and ethical norms;
- 2.2.4. Updating internal regulatory documents with regard to processing activities;
- 2.2.5. Carrying out data protection impact assessment, if necessary;
- 2.2.6. Introducing and maintaining a data processing register, wherein all the information shall be stored regarding the Personal Data processing activities (the purpose of processing of Personal Data; legal basis; categories of data; categories of Data Subject; recipients of data; transfer of data to third countries; periods of storage; etc.);
- 2.2.7. Designating a data protection officer;
- 2.2.8. Informing the Data Subject of his/her rights and the procedure of Personal Data processing by the Bank.
- 2.3. If a Personal Data Breach results or is likely to result in a high threat to the rights and freedoms of the Data Subject, the Bank shall inform the Data Subject and the Data State Inspectorate thereof in accordance with the requirements of the Regulation and the internal regulatory documents of the Bank.
- 2.4. Detailed information on the processing of Personal Data is further described in the agreements and other documents related to the Bank services, as well as on the Bank's website.

3. DATA SUBJECTS AND COLLECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

- 3.1. Personal Data may be collected:
- 3.1.1. Directly from the Data Subject;
- 3.1.2. Based on Client service activities (such as cookies, IP addresses, authorization, on-line purchases etc.);
- 3.1.3. From external sources – public and private registers or Third Parties (e.g. from parties acquiring potential borrowers, borrowers – legal persons providing loans to individuals, etc.).

5. PURPOSE AND LEGAL BASIS FOR THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

- 5.1. In its operations, the Bank shall process various types of Personal Data, the scope and nature of which are different, taking into account the diverse purposes of the processing of Personal Data. The Bank shall request and process Personal Data only in cases where the purpose and legal basis for the processing have been determined.
- 5.2. The Bank shall not process information which is not required to achieve the defined legitimate purposes. Before starting the processing of Personal Data, the Bank shall always evaluate and determine the purposes of the processing of Personal Data.
- 5.3. The Bank shall process Personal Data primarily for the following purposes:
 - 5.3.1. Provision and administration of financial services:
 - 5.3.1.1. On-site and off-site identification and authentication of a Client prior to establishing a business relationship with the Bank;
 - 5.3.1.2. Carrying out Client due diligence;
 - 5.3.1.3. Preparation and conclusion of an agreement (for example, account opening and maintenance agreement, loan agreement, credit card agreement, payment initiation service execution, etc.) and fulfilling contractual obligations;
 - 5.3.1.4. Providing remote services and authentication;
 - 5.3.1.5. Assessment of creditworthiness, ability to fulfil contractual obligations; loan supervision;
 - 5.3.1.6. Providing insurance services;
 - 5.3.1.7. Account maintenance/providing payment services;
 - 5.3.1.8. Fulfilling the duties established by laws and regulations (for example, fulfilling the requirements of the AML/CFTP Law; notifying the Credit Register of the Bank of Latvia, AS "Kreditinformācijas Birojs", transferring Personal Data to third party payment service providers in order to provide account information and / or payment initiation services);
 - 5.3.2. Providing one-time services to a Data Subject who is not a Client of the Bank (for example, currency exchange);
 - 5.3.3. Advertising and distribution of services, i.e., marketing needs; for example, sending and advertising of offers, carrying out client surveys and due diligence, organising lotteries and draws, etc.;
 - 5.3.4. Review and processing of complaints;
 - 5.3.5. Review and processing of whistleblower alerts;
 - 5.3.6. Protection of own infringed rights (for example, recovery and collection of debts);
 - 5.3.7. Maintenance of the website and mobile applications, as well as improving their operation;
 - 5.3.8. Providing non-disclosable information to authorities, public officials or other institutions and officials, in the cases and to the extent determined by laws and regulations (for example, to the State Revenue Service; court, police, prosecution office; bailiffs; notaries; controllers; etc.);
 - 5.3.9. Safeguarding the security of the Bank and/or the Client; protecting the life and health of the Client and/or its representatives, and other rights of the Bank and of the Client (visual and/or audio records), based on the legitimate interests of the Bank;
 - 5.3.10. Personnel management;
 - 5.3.11. Ensuring risk management (including conflict of interest and corruption risk management);
 - 5.3.12. Fulfilling the obligations established in international agreements, laws and regulations in the area of taxation, duties with regard to the automatic exchange of information regarding financial accounts, and other specified duties.
- 5.4. The Bank, as the Controller, shall obtain Personal Data mainly in the following ways:
 - 5.4.1. Carrying out identification and due diligence of the Client prior to establishing business relationship;
 - 5.4.2. Carrying out due diligence of the Client during business relationship;
 - 5.4.3. Establishing contractual relationship with the Client and fulfilling contractual obligations;
 - 5.4.4. Providing one-time services to a Data Subject who is not a Bank Client;
 - 5.4.5. Consulting the Client by phone or receiving a Client's order by phone;
 - 5.4.6. Requesting information regarding the Client from various registers;
 - 5.4.7. Hiring new employees;
 - 5.4.8. Receiving a letter or e-mail from the Data Subject;
 - 5.4.9. Carrying out video surveillance inside or outside the premises of the Bank;
 - 5.4.10. Using the information regarding the Data Subject available in the Internet resources and other public sources.

- 5.5. The Policy shall apply to the processing of Personal Data regardless of the form and/or environment in which the Client provides Personal Data (for example, on the Bank's website, in mobile applications, paper or telephone) and of the Bank's system or hard copy in which they are processed.
- 5.6. The Bank shall initiate the processing of Personal Data only if the processing of Personal Data has a specific purpose (for example, signing of an agreement; provision of a certain service; fulfilment of duties determined in laws and regulations etc.) and an appropriate legal basis.
- 5.7. If the Data Subject refuses from the processing of Personal Data, the Bank shall have grounds to refuse the provision of Bank's services.
- 5.8. Legal grounds for the processing of Personal Data may be the following:

Legal basis	Necessity
5.8.1. Establishment and fulfilment of contractual relationship	This legal basis shall ensure a possibility of processing Personal Data prior to entering into a contract in order to prepare the contract and process the Personal Data as long as the contract with the Data Subject is valid. With regard to the processing of Personal Data for the performance of a contract, the Data Subject shall have no right to prohibit the use of his/her data for the performance of the contract as long as the contract is valid. The Bank shall request all the information necessary for entering into a contract; moreover, the legal basis shall apply also in cases where a contract is not signed due to any reason. The Bank shall apply this legal basis in transfer of data to international card organisations (MasterCard, VISA etc.), for the performance of agreements entered into by and between the Client and the Bank, as well as transfer of information to correspondent banks for ensuring the settlement of payments arising from a payment account agreement entered into by and between the Client and the Bank, etc.
5.8.2. Compliance with a legal obligation	The Bank shall apply this legal basis to the processing of Personal Data, when the Bank has no free choice of action – the relevant activity is regulated by the applicable laws and regulations of the EU or Latvia. For example, determining the status of the Client status or the suitability/compliance of investment services with Client interests, which is the Bank's obligation under the Financial Instruments Market Law. Also, the AML/CFTP Law provides for a number of obligations imposed on the Bank, both in relation to the identification of the beneficial owner and a politically exposed person, and in relation to conducting the Client due diligence, etc.
5.8.3. Protecting the vital interests of the Data Subject or of Third Parties	The Bank shall apply this legal basis in exceptional cases where the processing of Personal Data is carried out, for example, to protect the life or health of a person. For example, if the Data Subject incurs health problems in the premises of the Bank and the health condition must be discussed with the emergency medical assistance workers.
5.8.4. Observance of the public interest or the exercise of official authority	Applies to cases where the Controller has official authority or carries out a task in the public interest and where processing is to be carried out in order to exercise such authority or to perform that task, as well as to situations where the Controller has no official authority but is required to disclose the data by a Third Party having such authority. Moreover, it may apply to situations where the Controller, upon request or on its own initiative, discloses data to a Third Party having such official authority. Such official authority or task in the public interest is usually stipulated by regulatory enactments. The Bank shall apply this legal basis, for example, to the processing of Personal Data: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) in accordance with Article 44 of the AML/CFTP Law, which establishes the right of credit institutions and financial institutions to exchange information with each other; 2) when assessing the data of its Clients through the AML/CFTP database or fraud database; 3) in order to achieve the objectives of the AML/CFTP Law, as it is stipulated in Part One of Article 5(2) of the AML/CFTP Law; 4) in accordance with the application of the Law on International Sanctions and National Sanctions of the Republic of Latvia in the context of the processing of Personal Data. However, in situations where the Bank has no freedom of action due to the legal obligation to be fulfilled, the Bank shall process the data on the basis of sub-paragraph 5.8.2.
5.8.5. Legitimate interests of the Bank or of a Third Party	The Bank shall apply this legal basis, when information regarding Third Parties must be included in applications in order to use the Bank's products (co-borrowers, warrantors, spouses, pledgers, persons involved in a transaction in the event of opening an escrow account, etc.), to ensure the security of property (video surveillance, admission system), storage of evidence of a performed transaction, service quality control (records of phone conversations), protection of infringed rights (recovery of debts) etc. When processing data in accordance with this legal basis, the Bank shall verify the balancing of interests before commencing the respective processing.

5.8.6. Consent given by the Data Subject	The Bank shall apply this legal basis, for example, for marketing needs, when a person registers for lotteries, draws or the receipt of informative materials. The Data Subject shall have the freedom of choice – either to provide his/her consent to the processing of Personal Data or not; likewise, the Data Subject shall have the right to withdraw his/her consent at any time, thus discontinuing the processing concerned. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of the processing of Personal Data, which has occurred before the receipt of withdrawal. For example, if the Bank sends commercial notices to the Client regarding the Bank's existing or future services, based on the consent given by the Client, the Bank shall discontinue the further sending of information as soon as the Client has withdrawn his/her consent.

6. AUTOMATED INDIVIDUAL DECISION-MAKING, INCLUDING PROFILING

- 6.1. For a credit risk-related service (credit limit), the Bank shall use automated individual decision-making, including profiling.
- 6.2. Profiling is automated processing of Personal Data that the Bank uses to analyse and evaluate the Client's economic situation. Profiling shall be based on the information provided by the Client to the Bank – information on income, debts, marital status, number of dependents, etc., as well as information obtained from Third Parties (State Social Insurance Agency, AS "Kreditinformācijas Birojs", Credit Register of the Bank of Latvia) in accordance with the procedures and scope specified in regulatory enactments.
- 6.3. Based on the results of profiling, an automated individual decision shall be made, which shall determine:
 - 6.3.1. Whether a credit limit is granted or refused to the Client;
 - 6.3.2. If the credit limit is granted – the amount and the applicable interest rate.
- 6.4. For a credit risk-related service, automated individual decision-making shall ensure rapid, accurate and effective decision-making in concluding an agreement.
- 6.5. In meeting the requirements of the AML/CFTP Law, the Bank shall employ a partially automated individual decision in respect of Client risk scoring that might potentially affect the application of Client surveillance measures. Such processing of Personal Data shall be carried out in the public interest, in meeting the requirements of the AML/CFTP Law.
- 6.6. A Client shall be entitled to express his or her opinion, as well as to challenge the automated individual decision taken within the scope of the credit risk-related service. In this case, the automated individual decision (which also includes profiling) shall be reviewed by the Bank employee. The procedure for expressing an opinion or challenging the decision shall be laid down in paragraph 11.2.
- 6.7. The Bank shall review the request without undue delay and shall in any event respond within one month and inform of the actions taken.

7. PROCESSING OF APPLICANTS' PERSONAL DATA

- 7.1. The Bank may obtain Personal Data of Applicants in one of the following ways:
 - 7.1.1. From the Applicant submitting an application and CV (Curriculum vitae) to the Bank for participating in the competition for a vacant position or internship;
 - 7.1.2. From the Applicant if he/she has specified Personal Data for receiving feedback about him/her;
 - 7.1.3. In the process of concluding a mutual contract, obtaining data from the Applicant;
 - 7.1.4. From the Applicant, if any applications have been submitted, emails sent, or calls made;
 - 7.1.5. Through websites LinkedIn or www.cv.lv.
- 7.2. The table below provides more information, indicating the purposes of processing the Applicant's Personal Data, categories, legal grounds for processing Personal Data and their storage periods.

Purpose of data processing	Personal data	Legal basis	Storage period
Evaluation of knowledge, skills, experience, recommendations for the vacancy for which the Applicant has applied, during the selection process	Name, surname, contact information, CV, application or motivation letters, recommendations, job interview questionnaires, certificates, interview results	Legitimate interests	1 year after the vacancy application

Internship agreements and additional agreements	Trainee's name, surname, contact information, CV	Establishment and fulfilment of contractual relationship	10 years after expiry of the contract
Verification of Candidates' compliance with the requirements laid down in the Credit Institution Law	Name, surname, ID number, information on criminal record, insolvency, violation of laws and regulations governing international or national sanctions or anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism and proliferation financing	Legal obligation	1 week
Storing CV for other job/internship offers	Name, surname, contact information, CV	Consent	1 year after the vacancy application

8. VIDEO SURVEILLANCE

- 8.1. Video surveillance shall be carried out inside and outside the premises of the Bank. Processing of Personal Data shall be justified and necessary both for the legitimate interest of the Controller and for the benefit of Data Subjects.
- 8.2. Video surveillance shall also be carried out at the Bank's ATMs. Personal Data processed during video surveillance at the Bank's ATMs shall be included in visual images.
- 8.3. As part of video surveillance, the purpose of the processing of Personal Data shall be to prevent and identify criminal offences related to the protection of the property of the Controller and to protect vital interests of persons, including their life and health.
- 8.4. Information labels on video surveillance shall be placed in the areas of operation of surveillance cameras.
- 8.5. The information containing Personal Data – video and visual image recordings, shall be processed by the Processors, who on behalf of the Bank provide both physical security and execution of cash transactions for Bank ATM users.
- 8.6. Video and visual image recordings obtained during the video surveillance may be transmitted to law enforcement authorities on request in accordance with the procedures specified in regulatory enactments, the content thereof may be disclosed and analysed within the scope of the relevant investigation.

9. TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA TO RECIPIENTS

- 9.1. In processing Personal Data, the Bank's priority is to respect the confidentiality of information. The information may be transferred to the Recipients (see categories of Recipients of Personal Data in paragraph 9.2) to the extent and in the cases provided for by the applicable laws and regulations of Latvia and the EU, as well as for the purpose of ensuring the provision of high-quality and efficient services or when it is necessary for the performance of contractual obligations with the Data Subject.
- 9.2. The Bank shall not disclose to the Recipient the Personal Data of a Client or any information obtained during the provision of services and the term of the agreement, including information on the received financial services or other information, except:
 - 9.2.1. If the relevant Recipient has to transfer the data within the framework of the concluded agreement in order to perform a function necessary for the performance of the agreement (for example, payment initiation service) or delegated by a regulatory enactment;
 - 9.2.2. If the Data Subject's explicit and unambiguous consent has been obtained;
 - 9.2.3. If it is provided for by external laws and regulations and only in such case, to the extent and in accordance with the procedures laid down in laws and regulations (for example, law enforcement agencies, sworn bailiffs, sworn notary offices, tax administrations, supervisory authorities and financial investigation institutions);

- 9.2.4. If external laws and regulations impose certain obligations on the Bank (for example, by ensuring the detection of fraudulent or malicious use of accounts) and the Bank will use third-party services to provide them;
 - 9.2.5. In cases specified in external regulatory enactments for the protection of the Bank's legitimate interests, for example, by applying to court or other state institutions against a Client who has infringed the legitimate interests of the Bank, inter alia, to debt collectors according to the assigned right to claim; insolvency proceedings administrators;
 - 9.2.6. To third parties specified in regulatory enactments, which maintain registers, for example, credit registers, population registers, commercial registers, securities registers, account registers, land registers and other registers, which contain or through which Personal Data are transferred;
 - 9.2.7. To auditors, providers of legal services, financial advisers or Processors, which carry out the processing of Personal Data by order of the Bank;
 - 9.2.8. To credit institutions and financial institutions, providers of insurance services, third parties involved in the performance of transactions, making of payments and the reporting cycle, for example, places of execution; registers of transactions, approved publishing bodies, approved reporting systems; to local and foreign brokers and depositories;
 - 9.2.9. To the related companies of the Bank;
 - 9.2.10. To other persons who guarantee proper fulfilment of Client liabilities towards the Bank, for example, warrantors, guarantee issuers, pledgers;
 - 9.2.11. To participants in the European and International Settlement Systems, including SWIFT, and persons associated with them;
 - 9.2.12. To the beneficial owners of the payment or transaction;
 - 9.2.13. To insurance companies;
 - 9.2.14. To Recipients related to the provision of Bank's services, including providers of archiving, postal, telecommunication services;
 - 9.2.15. To partners providing loyalty programmes and various privileges to Clients and employees of the Bank.
- 9.3. Prior to the transfer of data to the Processor, the Bank shall enter into a contract with it, which details the procedure by which the Processor shall process and protect Personal Data, as well as ensure the deletion of Personal Data upon termination of the purpose of personal data processing within the framework of the performance of the contract.
- 9.4. Only the information necessary for the specified purpose shall be transferred to the Recipient.
- 9.5. Within the framework of the cooperation agreement or regulatory enactments, the Bank shall ensure that the Recipient is notified of rectification, deletion or restriction of processing of Personal Data transferred to him in accordance with the Regulation, except where this is not possible or involves disproportionate effort. At the request of the Data Subject, in accordance with the procedure laid down in paragraph 11.2, the Bank shall inform about the Recipients referred to in this paragraph.
- 9.6. If permitted by the nature of the processing, the Bank may transfer pseudonymised information to the Recipient, by which the Recipient cannot identify the Data Subject concerned, or by means of Personal Data encryption.
- 9.7. The Bank may not enter into a contract with a Third Party only in cases where the transfer of the relevant data is regulated by the applicable laws and regulations of Latvia and the EU.
- 9.8. Recipients may process Personal Data both as Processors and as Third Parties. When the Recipient processes the Client's Personal Data on its own behalf as a Third Party, the Recipient shall be responsible for providing information about the processing of such Personal Data to the Data Subjects. In such case, the Bank shall invite the Client to contact this Recipient in order to obtain information about the processing of Personal Data by a Third Party (including the right of the Data Subject to erasure of Personal Data).

10. TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA TO THIRD COUNTRIES

- 10.1. In general, Personal Data shall be processed in the EU/EEA; however, in certain cases the data may be transferred to and processed in countries outside the EU/EEA (third countries). The transfer and processing of Personal Data outside the EU/EEA may occur if there is a legal basis for this, namely, to fulfil a legal obligation, to enter into or perform a contract, or in accordance with the Client's consent, and appropriate safeguards have been taken. Appropriate safeguards include, for example, a concluded agreement, including EU standard contractual clauses, which is approved under the Regulation; the Recipient is located in a country where, in accordance with the decision of the European Commission, an adequate level of protection of Personal Data is ensured.
- 10.2. Payment service providers involved in the execution of financial services (including SWIFT payments) may be established or operate in a country that does not provide an adequate level of protection for Personal Data (i.e., in a country which has not acceded to the EEA Agreement and which has not been included by the European Commission in the list of countries ensuring an adequate level of protection of Personal Data). The Bank shall take the necessary measures to ensure that the transfer of Personal Data for the performance of financial services, the implementation of the objectives of the AML/CFTP Law in accordance with the provisions of Article 44 of the AML/CFTP Law, as well as ensuring compliance with other regulatory enactments, takes place in a secure manner. However, there is a risk that the Bank will not be able to ensure that the Recipient complies with the requirements of the Regulation in all cases. Therefore, before engaging in such transactions, the Bank invites to carefully evaluate the possible risks of processing Personal Data.

- 10.3. At the request, the Data Subject may receive more detailed information regarding the transfer of Personal Data to countries outside the EU/EEA.

11. RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

- 11.1. The Data Subject shall have the right to obtain information regarding his/her Personal Data at the disposal of the Bank, as well as to request their rectification, erasure or supplementing, by submitting a written request to the Bank. This right of the Data Subject shall not apply to the processing of Personal Data, which is performed in order to fulfil the requirements of regulatory enactments regulating the prevention of money laundering, terrorism and proliferation financing, as well as in other cases specified by regulatory enactments.
- 11.2. The Data Subject may submit requests for information and complaints regarding the processing of his/her Personal Data or object to the adoption of an automated individual decision in the following ways:
- 11.2.1. In writing, by submitting an application in person at the Client Service Centre (Jēkaba iela 2, Rīga, LV-1050, Latvia), by presenting a personal identification document;
- 11.2.2. Electronically, by signing the application with a secure electronic signature and sending it by e-mail to datuaizsardziba@bluorbank.lv;
- 11.2.3. By sending a message in the Internet Bank of the Bank: <https://ib.bluorbank.lv>.
- 11.3. Upon receiving a request of the Data Subject regarding the exercise of his/her right, the Bank shall validate the identity of the Data Subject. The information available to the Bank regarding the Client and his/her transactions, which the Bank obtains while providing financial services, in accordance with signed contracts, shall be treated as non-disclosable information in accordance with the Credit Institution Law and shall be presented only to the Client him-/herself or to his/her legal representatives.
- 11.4. The Bank, in compliance with the requirements of the Regulation, has determined that:
- 11.4.1. Requests from the Data Subject addressed to the Processor shall be directed to the Bank, which shall act as the Controller in accordance with paragraph 11.3;
- 11.4.2. Requests of the Data Subject, who has placed their deposit with the Bank through the deposit platform, regarding their Personal Data shall be received by the relevant deposit platform, which ensures the implementation of the requirements laid down in paragraph 11.3 and which transmits the request of the relevant Data Subject to the Bank for the exercise of the Data Subject's rights.
- 11.5. The Data Subject shall have the following rights with regard to the processing of their Personal Data:
- 11.5.1. Receive information regarding the processing of his/her Personal Data, purposes and legal grounds of processing, categories of Recipients, the data source if Personal Data is not collected from the Data Subject, the legal bases, the duration of storage or the criteria for establishing the storage term. If Personal Data has been collected from Third Parties and the acquisition and/or disclosure of such information is provided for in EU or Latvian laws and regulations, then in accordance with Article 14 Paragraph 5 of the Regulation, the Bank shall have no obligation to inform the Data Subject about the processing of such Personal Data;
- 11.5.2. Access his/her data and receive confirmation of the processing of the data. For example, in the Bank's Internet Bank, the Client shall have the opportunity to get acquainted with information about account balances, Personal Data submitted to the Bank, payment history;
- 11.5.3. Rectify his/her data, if they are incorrect or inaccurate. The Data Subject shall, by submitting a reasoned request and information justifying it (if necessary), have the right to request the Bank to supplement or rectify his/her Personal Data, which are inaccurate or incomplete, without undue delay;
- 11.5.4. Erase his/her Personal Data, i.e., the 'right to be forgotten', for example, if the data is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was collected, or if the Data Subject has withdrawn their consent on the basis of which the data was processed, if the Bank has no other purpose and legal grounds for their further processing;
- 11.5.5. Restrict the processing of Personal Data, for example, if the Data Subject contests the accuracy of data, or if data are no longer necessary for the purposes set by the Bank, but the Data Subject objects to the erasure of data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, etc.;
- 11.5.6. Raise objections against the processing of Personal Data, if the processing is in the legitimate interests of the Bank or in the public interest. The right to object cannot be exercised if the legal basis for the processing of Personal Data is the consent given by the Data Subject, the establishment and fulfilment of contractual relationship, compliance with a legal obligation, protecting the vital interests of the Data Subject or of Third parties;

- 11.5.7. Exercise the right to data portability in order to retain the data or ensure repeated use of data, for example by transferring to another service provider. This right shall not be applicable to all the information. This right shall be applicable to the Personal Data provided by the Data Subject, for example, by filling out standard sheets and forms, applying for the use of Bank's products and services, as well as to the Personal Data processed by automated means (rather than using paper documents).
- 11.6. The Bank shall examine the requests of the Data Subject without undue delay, but not later than within one month following the receipt of the request and provide a reply to the Data Subject informing about the measures to be taken in relation to his/her request. The Bank may extend the deadline for the execution of requests for another two months, if there are grounds for this (for example, a large number of requests or complexity of requests).
- 11.7. The Bank shall respond to the requests of the Data Subject, as well as perform any other activities related to the execution of the request of the Data Subject, free of charge, except in cases where the request is obviously unreasonable, excessive, or not commensurate with the resources at the disposal of the Bank, namely, if, as a result of the execution of the request or the conditions for its execution, the Bank's operation or the rights of other natural persons are threatened.
- 11.8. The Data Subject shall have the right to submit a complaint if he/she considers that his/her Personal Data is processed in non-compliance with the requirements of laws and regulations: to the Data State Inspectorate, website: www.dvi.gov.lv, address: Elijas ielā 17, Rīga, LV-1050, phone: 67223131, e-mail: pasts@dvi.gov.lv.
- 11.9. The Data Subject shall have the right to submit a complaint to the supervisory authority of the Member State in which his/her permanent place of residence, place of work or possible place of committing violation is located, if the Data Subject considers that the Bank violates the requirements of laws and regulations in processing his/her Personal Data. Information on other supervisory authorities is available here: http://ec.europa.eu/justice/article-29/structure/data-protection-authorities/index_en.htm

12. STORAGE PERIOD OF PERSONAL DATA

- 12.1. Personal Data shall only be processed for as long as necessary. The storage period may be based on the agreement with the Client, the Bank's legitimate interests, or applicable laws and regulations (for example, by the laws and regulations regarding accounting, prevention of money laundering, terrorism and proliferation financing, in case of limitation period of Civil Laws, etc.).
- 12.2. The Bank shall store and process the Personal Data of the Data Subject as long as at least one of the following conditions exists:
- 12.2.1. Only as long as the contract with the Data Subject is in force;
 - 12.2.2. As long as the Bank or the Data Subject can exercise their legitimate interests in accordance with the procedures laid down in external laws and regulations (for example, to submit objections or bring an action in court);
 - 12.2.3. While the Bank has a legal obligation to store Personal Data;
 - 12.2.4. As long as the Bank has a reasonable basis for legitimate interests (for example, storage of Personal Data about Clients with whom business relations have been terminated on the Bank's initiative, or with whom the commencement of business relations has been refused at all);
 - 12.2.5. As long as the consent of the Data Subject to the relevant processing of Personal Data is in force, if there is no other legal basis for the processing of Personal Data.
- 12.3. After the expiry of the storage period of Personal Data in accordance with paragraph 12.2, Personal Data of the Data Subject shall be erased.
- 12.4. Personal Data processed in respect of the video surveillance performed by the Bank shall be stored for 1 or 3 months (depending on the area of operation of the surveillance cameras) from the moment of recording, unless another purpose of the processing arises (for example, requests from law enforcement authorities).

13. DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

- 13.1. The Bank shall appoint a Data Protection Officer, who shall organise, control and supervise the compliance of the processing of Personal Data carried out by the Bank as a Controller with the requirements of laws and regulations and this Policy, ensure cooperation with the supervisory authority – the Data State Inspectorate. The Data Protection Officer shall advise the Bank's employees, who carry out the processing of Personal Data, on their duties in accordance with the Regulation and other regulatory enactments on data protection, as well as provide information to the Data Subjects, who address the Bank on issues related to the processing of Personal Data.
- 13.2. The Data Subject shall have the right to receive replies to general questions relating to the processing of Personal Data by the Bank (questions which do not require the provision of non-disclosable information), as well as to withdraw the consent given to the processing of his/her Personal Data by contacting the Bank by e-mail: datuaizsardziba@bluorbank.lv. Information requests regarding the processing of their Personal Data or complaints shall be submitted pursuant to the procedures laid down in paragraph 11.2 of this Policy. The Bank shall ensure communication in Latvian, Russian and English.
