MiFID II Top 5 Venue Reporting Commentary	The Markets in Financial Instruments Directive - MiFID II mandates that investment firms, as part of their best execution obligations, report their top five venues for all trading on behalf of clients. Firms are required to make an annual public disclosure detailing these order routing practices for retail and professional clients across all asset classes.
Explanation of execution factors	Over the course of the reporting period, in this instrument class AS BlueOrange Bank has only undertaken client orders on an agency basis with third party brokers. This business has been conducted via five third party equity brokers. AS BlueOrange Bank front office staff have used these brokers to direct client orders to the appropriate broker and markets, to achieve the best possible outcome for each transaction. The following relative importance has been given to the factors that are relevant to broker selection: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Geographic expertise, market coverage, trading solution; 2. Other factors – including, but not limited to the speed of execution, the cost of execution, the ability to handle certain order sizes and the specific nature of the order. As the trades in this instrument class were all executed by third party brokers, the specific factors affecting execution, eg price, cost, speed, were under the control of the brokers and not under AS BlueOrange Bank’s immediate influence. AS BlueOrange Bank determines which broker to use at the point of execution based on their judgment as to which broker will be able to execute the trade most effectively, and in accordance with Best Execution, taking into account these specific execution factors.
Description of close links	AS BlueOrange Bank is not affiliated with any execution venue/broker used to execute client orders.
Description of specific arrangements	In this instrument class, the only payment arrangements between AS BlueOrange Bank and brokers have been those covering fee payments made by AS BlueOrange Bank to the brokers for brokerage trades transacted on behalf of AS BlueOrange Bank’s clients. AS BlueOrange Bank has neither given nor received any discounts, rebates or non-monetary benefits to or from these execution venues/brokers during the reporting period.
Explanation of factors that led to change	In this instrument class, AS BlueOrange Bank has only traded client transactions on an agency basis with external brokers. These brokers have been the only execution venues in this instrument class and there have been no changes to this during the reporting period.
Explanation of differences according to client categorisation	In this instrument class, there has been no client differentiation with respect to the routing of client orders to third party brokers. AS BlueOrange Bank has offered the same arrangements to all clients with respect to equity orders during the reporting period.
Explanation of other criteria precedence	In this instrument class, no criteria were given precedence other than as specified above (see ‘Explanation of execution factors’), to deliver the best possible result in terms of the total consideration to the client, during the reporting period.
Explanation of data or tools usage	In this instrument class, AS BlueOrange Bank used publicly available market data to compare and to monitor the quality of execution achieved by third party brokers, during the reporting period.

MiFID II Top 5 Venue Reporting Commentary	The Markets in Financial Instruments Directive - MiFID II mandates that investment firms, as part of their best execution obligations, report their top five venues for all trading on behalf of clients. Firms are required to make an annual public disclosure detailing these order routing practices for retail and professional clients across all asset classes.
Explanation of execution factors	Over the course of the reporting period, in this instrument class AS BlueOrange Bank mainly has executed client orders on a principal basis with the broker or directly through multilateral trading facilities or trading venues. In certain cases AS BlueOrange may act as an execution venue. AS BlueOrange Bank front office staff have used these brokers to achieve the best possible outcome for each transaction. AS BlueOrange Bank is direct member of the NASDAQ Riga, NASDAQ Vilnius, Bloomberg Trading Facility Limited, Bloomberg Trading Facility BV. The following relative importance has been given to the factors that are relevant to broker/execution venue selection: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The main execution factor we consider is execution price; 2. The secondary execution factors we take into account when assessing the quality of execution are liquidity, costs, speed and likelihood of execution, size of the order and settlement. In the assessment and selection of execution venues and brokers where we believe we can consistently obtain best execution in debt instruments for our clients, we consider qualitative and quantitative factors, such as market access and liquidity, market knowledge and coverage, reliable quoting, market price transparency, order handling process, speed of response and execution, trading costs. To ensure that we are consistently able to deliver best execution to our clients, we monitor on an ongoing trade by trade basis the quality of execution.
Description of close links	AS BlueOrange Bank is not affiliated with any execution venue/broker used to execute client orders.
Description of specific arrangements	In this instrument class, normally trading is done on a principal basis with the broker or directly through trading venue so it should be expected that no commissions would be paid on these trades. AS BlueOrange Bank has neither given nor received any discounts, rebates or non-monetary benefits to or from these execution venues/brokers during the reporting period.
Explanation of factors that led to change	AS BlueOrange Bank monitor and appraise the execution brokers/venues in detail throughout the year. During the year we have determined the brokers are suitable counterparties to facilitate execution and update the list of brokers. AS BlueOrange Bank is direct member of NASDAQ Riga and Vilnius stock exchanges and started to execute client's order with listed financial instruments directly on the exchanges without intermediary of third party brokers.
Explanation of differences according to client categorisation	In this instrument class, there has been no client differentiation with respect to the execution of client orders. AS BlueOrange Bank take into account specific client instruction with respect to order execution. AS BlueOrange Bank has offered the same arrangements to all clients with respect to orders in this instrument class during the reporting period.
Explanation of other criteria precedence	In this instrument class, no criteria were given precedence other than as specified above (see 'Explanation of execution factors'), to deliver the best possible result in terms of the total consideration to the client, during the reporting period.
Explanation of data or tools usage	In this instrument class, AS BlueOrange Bank used publicly available market data to compare and to monitor the quality of execution achieved by third party brokers, during the reporting period.

MiFID II Top 5 Venue Reporting Commentary	The Markets in Financial Instruments Directive - MiFID II mandates that investment firms, as part of their best execution obligations, report their top five venues for all trading on behalf of clients. Firms are required to make an annual public disclosure detailing these order routing practices for retail and professional clients across all asset classes.
Explanation of execution factors	Over the course of the reporting period, in this instrument class AS BlueOrange Bank has only undertaken client orders on an agency basis with third party brokers. This business has been conducted via third party brokers, who specialized in exchange-traded derivatives trading. AS BlueOrange Bank front office staff have used these brokers to direct client orders to the appropriate broker and markets, to achieve the best possible outcome for each transaction. The following relative importance has been given to the factors that are relevant to broker selection: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Geographic expertise, market coverage, trading solution; 2. Other factors – including, but not limited to the speed of execution, the cost of execution, the ability to handle certain order sizes and the specific nature of the order. As the trades in this instrument class were all executed by third party brokers, except trades on trading venues, where AS BlueOrange Bank is the direct member, the specific factors affecting execution, eg price, cost, speed, were under the control of the brokers and not under AS BlueOrange Bank's immediate influence. AS BlueOrange Bank determines which broker to use at the point of execution based on their judgment as to which broker will be able to execute the trade most effectively, and in accordance with Best Execution, taking into account these specific execution factors.
