Upon the elimination of such violations, the Bank may restore the Card at the Client's request.
- 7.4. The Bank shall be entitled to unilaterally suspend the Card by contacting the Client in advance or immediately upon suspension of the Card, if the Bank identifies any Transactions that, in the Bank's judgement, are unusual to the Cardholder. - 9.7. Once a year, after concluding the Agreement, the Bank shall have the right to evaluate the terms and conditions of the granted Credit Limit (including the Interest Rate, the amount of the Credit Limit). If the Bank decides to change the terms and conditions of the Credit Limit, the Bank shall inform the Client about the changes 30 (thirty) days in advance, and the Consumer Client – 60 (sixty) days in advance.
- 9.8. In case of repayment of the standard Credit Limit, the Client shall, by the 20th of a given month (or, if the 20th is a day-off or holiday, by the last Bank business day preceding the 20th), pay the Minimum Amount Payable — 5% (five per cent) of the Credit Limit used during the preceding calendar month, and Interest.
- 9.9. For a Credit Limit with grace period of up to 50 days (applies to Credit Limits granted before March 1, 2021):

- 9.9.2. Interest shall be charged if the Client has failed to repay the Credit Limit used during the previous calendar month by the end of the 20th of the month following the calendar month of using the Credit Limit, or the Bank business day preceding such 20th day (if the 20th falls on a day-off, a holiday or a Bank holiday).
- 9.10. Repayment of the standard Credit Limit cannot be replaced by repayment of the Credit Limit with grace period up to 50 days.

- 9.12. The used Credit Limit shall be available to the Client in the amount that was repaid by the Client.
- 9.13. If the Client requests to increase the Credit Limit, the Bank shall be entitled to refuse to increase the Credit Limit or to offer the Client a lower Credit Limit increase than requested by the Client.
- 9.14. The Bank shall be entitled, by notifying the Client 30 (thirty) days in advance, and the Consumer Client 60 (sixty) days in advance, to unilaterally reduce or, if the Credit Limit has been spent, to demand full repayment of the provided Credit Limit, if:
- 9.14.1. The Bank is aware about an increase in the Client's liabilities, reduction of income, delayed payments, claims of third parties or other circumstances that adversely affect/may affect the Client's creditworthiness;

- 9.14.2. The assessment of creditworthiness is negative;
 - 9.14.3. The Collateral established for the receipt of the Credit Limit is lost;
 - 9.14.4. During the term of the Agreement, the Client was late on payments towards the Bank;
 - 9.14.5. This is required by the authorities supervising the activities of the Bank.
- 9.15. In cases when the term of the Agreement has expired or the Agreement has been terminated at the initiative of the Bank, the Bank has the right to set a repayment schedule for the full repayment of the Credit Limit provided in accordance with the Agreement, as well as to determine the procedure for paying Interest and penalties by concluding an agreement with the Client on debt repayment. If the Client does not comply with the terms of the said agreement, the Bank may unilaterally terminate it and require the Client to immediately repay the entire debt and/or, if necessary, file a claim with the court to recover the debt.
- 9.16. If the Bank suspends the Card in accordance with the Agreement and blocks the Client Account or any other accounts in the amount of the Credit Limit, the Client shall not be entitled to unilaterally handle the funds available in the accounts until any due payments under the Agreement are fully discharged. The Bank shall unblock the accounts as soon as there are no reasons for blocking, i.e., delayed payments are discharged or the orders of competent institutions/officials are executed/cancelled.
- 9.17. The Client shall credit the Client Account in the amount of Minimum Amount Payable, Card account maintenance fee, Interest and interest on the Unauthorized Credit Limit.

The Client shall not appeal a Transaction executed based on a Consent given in accordance with the procedures laid down in this Clause and GTB.
- 10.6. If the Cardholder disputes an already executed Transaction, the Cardholder shall submit to the Bank all the information and documents (i.e., any evidence) required for conducting a review of the contested Card Transaction.

- 10.8. Each purchase or Transaction executed through an ATM by using a Card may be reflected in the Client Account twice as Transaction amount reservation (Reserved Amount) and Transaction authorisation. Cancellation of the Reserved Amount shall not affect the Transaction authorisation and the Client shall ensure funds in the Client Account necessary for the execution of the Transaction, unless the party, accepting the Card, cancels the transaction.
- 10.9. The Client shall credit the Client Account in the amount of the Minimum Amount Payable, Credit Limit usage fee, Card Account maintenance fee, Interest or penalties (if applicable) not later than by the end of the Settlement Period, unless the respective payments are due on an earlier date.
